February 2019

Letter from the Editor

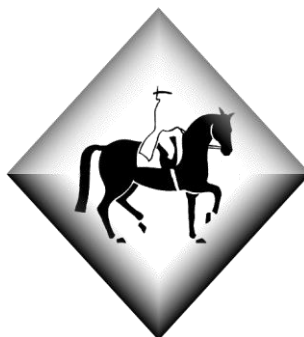

What lovely days we have had so far this year- perfect for a morning ride before it gets too hot! At least that has been my plan! I hope all of you got a drop or 2 out of the last couple of weeks rain'ish weather, my paddocks and tanks sure have appreciated it.

Not a great deal this month, our February meeting is on the 19th, so March will hopefully have a bit more juice to it.

I mainly wanted to send out Feb newsletter as I had the first training day's date wrong last month, instead of the 24th, it is the 17th MARCH, and I wanted to clear up any confusion, had anyone noticed.

Anyway, as always, if anyone wishes to add anything to the newsletters, my email is moo_clock@hotmail.com , please don't hesitate to email me!

Sam Howard- Newsletter Editor.

Updated Dressage tests for 2019-

Again- just for those who don't already know, EA have created all new dressage tests beginning 2019. I have to say, I was happy for the change, the new tests are different and exciting, but also a little daunting at the prospect of now re-writing the knowledge in my head!!

Head to the EA website <http://www.equestrian.org.au/dressage-rules> to find all the new rules and tests for 2019.

Tip: If you are unsure if your tests are current, they have changed the names of the tests back to letters ie: Preliminary 1.1 is now preliminary 1A 1.2 is now 1B 1.3 is now 1C , and so on for all levels. So if your papers have only numbers, they are old and need refreshing!!
